

BARBARA KIRK AUCTIONS

COVID-19 JANUARY/FEBRUARY LOCKDOWN OUR ARRANGEMENTS

Where possible, we are continuing to operate under the current lockdown, but under strict, special arrangements with safety restrictions & procedures in place & a priority.

Visitors...

All auction houses must close to the public during this lockdown.

We are therefore currently unable to accept any visitors & entry into our premises will not be permitted.

Please telephone or email us for any enquiries or further information about our current procedures for our services & auctions during this lockdown.

Valuations...

If you require a valuation of any kind please contact our office first to discuss this. We currently are unable to offer on-the-spot, person to person valuations on our premises.

Home Visits...

Probate valuations only will be permitted during this lockdown period.

Home visit appointments & house contents valuations will not be possible. Please telephone our office to discuss this further.

Delivery of entries...

Delivery of entries is possible, but by 'drop-off' appointments to a safe area only. Face masks must be worn & an appointment must be arranged through our office before delivery.

Online only auctions. Viewing & attendance...

All auctions will be online only with live bidding during this lockdown. Viewing & attending auctions in person will not be possible.

Viewing will be via our fully illustrated online catalogue only. The catalogue will be available online through www.the-saleroom.com 10 days before the auction.

Payment for purchases...

Payment for purchase can be made by telephone only with payment by debit card or bank transfer. We are unable to take payments upon collection.

Collection & shipping of purchases...

Collection of purchases will be by appointment only arranged by telephone after payment. Purchases will be prepared ready for collection in a safe area. Please bring any boxes or packing material require as we cannot supply these.

Our in-house postal shipping service will continue to operate for items suitable for posting. Also, other carriers will still be in operation for items we cannot ship.
